NEWS NOTES.

At Hawesville the "wets" won by 112.

Albert, the great trick elephant, is dead at Kansas City.

Mrs. Lizzie Mullen, of Mason county, was instantly killed in a runaway.

The Franklin grand jury is expected to report more indictments Saturday.

The death sentence imposed on Col. Arthur Lynch was commuted to life imprisonment.

Jasper Jones, a Pineville workman, lost his home, household effects and cash savings by fire.

The widow of a man killed in the Grand Central tunnel accident in New York received judgment for $10,000.

In accordance with a promise made her husband before his death, a New Jersey woman scattered his ashes over the sea.

Peter Maher was knocked out by Joe Choyenski in the second round of what was scheduled to be a six round bout at Philadelphia.

Fifty-two persons were burned to death in a fire which destroyed five buildings in the Colney Hatch Lunatic Asylum, London.

Noah Griggs was sentenced to jail at Lexington for 30 days for "peeping" on what he declared was a moor which was forming to "whitecap" him.

A mob of 600 persons at Chicago, led by women, held up a coal train and stole the contents of five cars before the police could control the situation.

Bank safes at Steelville, Ill., and Waterloo, Neb., were blown open by robbers, who made rich hauls, getting $3,000 at Steelville and $3,500 at Waterloo.

Mrs. W. T. Tolson died at Campion of smallpox. There are now about 30 cases of the disease in the town and several in the county. All business is suspended.

Forty-nine State and private banks were organized in Kentucky during the year 1902 with a combined capital of $1,470,000. This increases the number of banking institutions in the State to 512.

A memorable celebration of the birthday of the late President McKinley was held in Canton, O., Tuesday night, when President Roosevelt and other distinguished visitors gathered around the banquet board.

An array of distinguished men from both the North and the South attended the banquet given by Davis Camp, United Confederate Veterans, in New York. Charles Francis Adams responded to the toast "Robert E. Lee." Mr. Henry Watterston spoke of "The Memory of Lincoln."

The superintendent of public buildings in Washington asks for $110,264 for the White House this year, as against $95,000 last year. He says it is more expensive to maintain the building now, owing to the recent architectural changes and the large family occupying it.

At the United Mine Workers' convention it was decided to make no change in the assessment for the defense fund at present. The Committee on Constitution proposed a change in representation, whereby the assent of three-fourths of the districts will be necessary to inaugurate a general strike, instead of three-fifths, as heretofore.

BARGAIN BABIES.

If babies were for sale the most inveterate bargain-hunting woman in the world would not look for a bargain baby. She would want the best baby that could be bought, regardless of price.

Every woman naturally craves a healthy, handsome child, and her craving can be gratified if she will but remember that the child's health is her own gift, and to give health she must

"My wife had been sick nearly all her life," says Mr. E. B. Fricke, of Peoria, Ill., "and after trying everything I could think of I made up my mind to try 'Favorite Prescription.' I got six bottles, which my wife took, a tablespoonful three times a day, until the baby came. She felt better after taking the first bottle, and when baby was born he weighed nine and a half pounds. To-day he is six months old and weighs twenty-two pounds. He is as good a child as any one could wish. The doctor says he is as healthy as any baby could be, and also says the use of your 'Favorite Prescription' was the cause of such a healthy baby."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for the use of delicate women.

Boston suffered a $250,000 fire. Mayor John H. Mallory, of Bowling Green, is dead.

B. H. Lewis, former deputy sheriff of Nelson county, is dead.

Five persons were killed by the explosion of a boiler at Anniston, Ala.

Robert Planquet, the composer of "The Chimes of Normandy," is dead.

Eight persons were killed and 11 cars destroyed in a wreck near Tucson, Ariz.

There are eight cases of small-pox in Georgetown. They are all under quarantine.

President Lincoln's old home at Springfield, Ill., had a narrow escape from destruction by fire.

The suit attacking the validity of the Goebel Reward Commission act was dismissed by Judge Cantrill.

While walking on a trestle in Carter county, Mrs. Alvin Stone was run down and killed by a C. & O. train.

More than a score of dead bodies were taken from the ruins of the collision of a Reading express and a local express at Graceland, N. J.

The court of appeals affirmed the judgment of the Fayette circuit court, sentencing William McCarty to be hanged for the murder of his wife.

The 10-year-old daughter of Homer Hird, condemned to die in Alaska, has written a childish appeal to Miss Allen Roosevelt to intercede for her father.

The United States government waived the right of immunity in the case of Godfrey Hunter, Jr. It is presumed that the verdict in the case will be upheld.

The Goebel Reward Commission at its session in Frankfort accepted the resignation of John K. Hendrick and B. W. Bradburn and elected L. C. Norman and J. M. Richardson to succeed them as members of the board.

The official announcement has been made at St. Louis that the Louisiana Purchase Exposition buildings and grounds will be dedicated on April 30. Speeches will be made by President Roosevelt and former President Cleveland.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

There are 33 lawyers at Harrodsburg.

Mrs. Kitty Hsie, aged 99, is dead in Madison. She is survived by a sister who is 102.

R. Dunbar, brother of Sidney Dunbar, of this county, is dead at Jamestown, aged 83.

Mrs. Jack Harrison, of Bell county, gave birth to triplets and she and all three of the children died later.

Gov. Beckham has appointed R. H. Crooke, of Richmond, a Special Judge of the Madison Circuit Court in the case of A. Warner against J. H. Evans, County Judge.

Edward Saxton, of Boston, will arrive this week, having accepted the offer of Central University to fill the chair of oratory, which has been established at Central University.

The citizens of Russell Springs, Russell county, are making an effort for the removal of the county seat to that place from Jamestown. They offer to build a court-house at their own expense.

Joe and Howies Smith, brothers, killed their cousin, Cal Dobbs, near Mount Pleasant, Wayne county, as the result of an old feud. The Smiths have escaped and a reward of $200 is offered for their capture.

There were crowded into the Somerset jail Saturday night 29 prisoners in a space hardly sufficient for a dozen with any sort of comfort. We are glad to learn that the fiscal court has taken the matter up and will extend the prison accommodations the coming spring.

The Bell County Coke and Improvement Co. has been organized to develop mountain land. Vincent Boreling is president, James B. McCreary, vice president and R. C. Ford, secretary and treasurer. The company has purchased 10,000 acres of coal and timber land along the upper waters of the Cumberland, and this will be developed without delay.

Don't Worry.

This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Some one sent money and a prayer that "a just jury will sit in the Powers case and a just God watch over the case." The Nelson Record suggests that the same God is on duty that saw William Goebel murdered.

Remit us the amount of your subscription and greatly oblige us.

CRAB ORCHARD.

W. A. Bearley was here on business this week.

Robert Holmes will attend school in Stanford this term. Col. Welch was here with friends.

Mr. Will Davis, who has been making his home with Mr. Stringer near here, died last Sunday.

On account of the disagreeable weather, the W. C. T. U. did not meet last Saturday. They have postponed organizing until spring.

It is rumored that one of our cleverest young bachelors will open a choice line of groceries and dry goods soon. If a suitable store room can be rented. Houses and store rooms are hard to find here this winter.

Newton Goodman is in Louisville on business. Mrs. Jane Hutchinson, of Rowland, is visiting Mr. Chris. Hutchinson, whose wife continues sick. Misses Lena Napier and Lillian Garner entertained a few friends at their homes last week.

Rev. O. M. Huey, of Stanford, will conduct services at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon. The members of the church hope to have him as pastor for one Sabbath of each month during the year. All members are requested to be at the business meeting after services.

More of our young boys and girls are expected to go away to school soon. There is a fine opening here for a teacher of the advanced branches. An energetic and enterprising teacher would be most welcome, as so many of our boys and girls are sent away on account of the higher branches not being taught here.

Mrs. Sabra McClure has returned from Lancaster. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Baile, of Lancaster, are visiting A. Baile and family. Miss Addie Holmes has returned from a delightful visit to Mrs. John McRoberts at Lebanon. Miss Addie is both pretty and talented, skillful with brush and needle, as is shown by the beautiful specimens we have seen. Pretty Little Miss Goodie fled last Saturday with a nice dinner and different games. Messrs. W. H. and William Dillion, of Livingston, were here Monday prospecting for a home for the latter. Their friends here will give them a hearty welcome as citizens again.

LIBERTY.

Mrs. Rebecca Owens has moved to her old home in Russell.

Ed. J. Q. Montgomery preached at Junction City last Sunday.

Rev. J. B. Ferrell preached at the Baptist church last Sunday.

Miss Edie Wilkinson, of Lebanon, is visiting relatives here. Chas. Phillips, of Taylor, was visiting Henry Bartels last Sunday. Oscar Wilkinson made a visit to Humphrey.

Miss Lela Montgomery is visiting relatives in Adair. Dr. M. O. Salile made a visit to his old home at Columbia. Mrs. Sarah Scott is here working up a hive of Lady Maccabees.

Charley Roy, of Montgomery, is visiting his old home here. Otha Wier and Willie Bradley, of Russell, were here Saturday. Mitchell Taylor and wife, of Burnside, were the guests of his brother. Henry Thomas made a business trip to Phil.

The delegated convention that was held here Monday caused much strife among the ranks of Casey republicans. Capt. Ed. Pelley got all the votes for the Legislature, while it was a tie between the candidates for circuit clerk, and will take a suit to settle it.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. O. M. Huey's subject Sunday morning is "The Sorrowful Look;" evening "The man in the Home."

There will be services at the Presbyterian church at Junction City hereafter on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of each month at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.

Craig & Hocker guarantee every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

We utterly loathe and despise every man who was in any manner connected with the conspiracy to assassinate Gov. Goebel or gave aid or comfort to those who did by sympathy either expressed or implied. They are murderers at heart and in words if not in law just as guilty. To hades with the whole murderous crew.—Lexington Democrat.

For a bad taste in the mouth take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price 25c. Warranted to cure. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

There are eight candidates for representative in McCracken county.

MIDDLEBURG.

Rev. J. B. Ferrell filled his appointments at the Baptist church Sunday. There is quite a demand for corn. Prices range from $2 to $2.50 per barrel.

It is rumored that the firm of Wesley & Wesley will soon close out their stock of goods at this place.

Keenev & McIntosh are doing a fine business in the spoke trade. They pay spot cash and the highest prices for your hickory and white oak spokes.

School is progressing nicely. A goodly number of Casey's and adjoining counties' young teachers, and others who are preparing for teachers are in attendance.

W. P. Wesley has traded his property on College street to Elisha Gifford for his tract of 40 acres, south of town. Uncle Elisha gets something in the neighborhood of $1,000 to boot.

James Drye left Tuesday for Bowling Green, to attend the school at that place for the present term. Frank Jones, the jeweler, and W. T. Dye were out on a fishing expedition Tuesday. They succeeded in taking a few members of the tribe.

Jefferson Godhey and family are leaving for Oklahoma. Clell Wheat, who has been here on a visit since Christmas, has returned to his home in Texas. He is much pleased with Texas and brings very flattering reports of the new territory in Oklahoma.

Prof. J. W. Davis and wife are citizens of whom Middleburg should be proud. Their school work is very successful. It would be well for all those who are expecting to become teachers to come and spend a few months under their instruction. A more successful normal teacher than Prof. Davis is difficult to find in the State.

I beg leave of the editor and other contributors of this JOURNAL to enter your ranks as an humble gatherer of the news of Middleburg and the surrounding community. If you will be so kind as to admit a raw recruit like myself, I shall exert all my powers so that in the near future I shall become a disciplined member of your honorable band; and thus may be a mutual benefit to both parties.

The republican campaign committee or delegation met at Liberty Monday to nominate a candidate for the office of circuit clerk. When the ballot was taken it resulted in a tie between the two candidates, Jason Wesley, of this place, and James Gibony, the present clerk. So the party has two candidates or none for the office. Mr. Wesley is a most deserving and highly respected young man, and it is your scribe's opinion that the republican party could make no better choice than to give him the nomination.

LANCASTER.

C. W. Anderson sold a pair of mules to Bowen Fox for $225.

The temperance people have gone to work in a vigorous campaign.

C. W. Anderson had a mule badly hurt by trying to jump a fence.

Rev. Geo. O. Barnes is drawing fair audiences every evening at the court house.

Rev. J. E. Woolford is called to Richmond to preach a trial sermon Sunday.

Dr. E. H. Pearce will preach a temperance sermon Sunday afternoon at Herring's school house.

The skating rink bids fair to prove an attraction to the young folks. A free opening is announced for this afternoon.

Cyrus Eason has bought the William Baughman farm in the lower part of the county and will take possession March 1.

The Christian Endeavor Society will have an open session Sunday evening and an interesting program will be rendered.

Mrs. Buck Carter died Tuesday near Buckeye, of rheumatism, and the interment took place Wednesday. She left a husband and four children.

The sad news reached here of the fatal burning of Samuel M. Peacock by the explosion of gasoline in his drug store at Coal Creek, Tenn. The unfortunate man ran and jumped into the creek, but was unconscious when taken from the water and died. He was the son of the late Captain Thos. Peacock and was in his 52 year. He was postmaster here under Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Deeny attended the Cooper-Pearson nuptials at Harrodsburg Wednesday evening. Mrs. E. P. Faulconer and daughter, Miss Pearl, of Danville, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Folconer. Mrs. J. S. Robinson is visiting her mother, Mrs. Wallace in Madison. Miss Addie Arnold, E. W. Morrow and Clayton Arnold attended the funeral of Mrs. Duncan Powell at Paris. Miss Rosella Gully entertained at a lunch party Wednesday evening. Mr. Jas. A. Royson has been on sick list. Miss Sallie Ross entertains at lunch this evening. Captain Frank J. White has been ill for a few days. Miss Rella Arnold leaves Monday for a visit to Nicholasville and Lexington.

"EVERY person to his own liking," said the old woman who kissed her pet cow. If the Advocate, which got to be democratic almost within the twinkling of an eye, wants to help along such papers as the Lexington Herald, which fights democracy except when there is something in sight, and which wears the cloak of democracy in order to better serve the republican party, it's no business of ours. "The old lady around the corner" is free, white and past 21 and she has a right to do what she pleases. We think the Herald and the Louisville Post have done more to help the republican party than all of the republican papers in the State and we are at a loss to know why the Advocate wants to help such publications along by offering its subscribers inducements to take them. Better continue to "follow the rooster," gentlemen, as you stated some weeks ago that you intended to do, and let the Herald take care of its own paper and policy. Simon-pure democrats don't need the Herald; it is the weak-kneed that are looking for something to get scared at that want such a paper.

A CENSUS recently taken in China for the purpose of assessing taxes to meet the indemnity payments, shows that the population there multiplies like fleas. The 18 provinces of China proper contain 407,747,305 inhabitants; Manchuria has 8,500,000 and Mongolia, Tibet and Chinese Turkestan a little over 10,000,000. The total population of the Empire is 426,447,425, according to this enumeration. The absolute reliability of Asiatic statistics is questioned; nevertheless, the agreement of the results of the census with the accepted estimates is so close as to invite confidence. The statement that the Chinese Empire contains one-third of the human race will hereafter be regarded more than ever as an approximate truth.

AN incendiary speech was made by James H. Hayes, a Negro lawyer of Richmond, Va., before the Afro-American Council in Washington, when he said that the black man may yet be compelled to resort to the sword and torch to avenge the alleged injustice done him by the whites. A coat of tar and feathers or some 30 feet of good, strong rope might stop this skunk from such utterances and the sooner the dose is administered the better it will be for Hayes and his race.

A CONVENTION of the United Mine Workers of America in Indianapolis demanded an increase of 12 cents a ton. Both the miners and the mine owners will do well to omit the "demand" habit for a time. The public's turn to "demand" has come.

A PORTION of Youtsey's confession is given elsewhere. The whole story is a blood-curdling one and if the entire crew implicated in the assassination of Gov. Goebel do not hang, it will be a shame on the laws of Kentucky that time can never efface.

THE editor of the Somerset Journal is tickled to death because the Pulaski county jail is going to be enlarged. Can it be possible that Brer Campbell is figuring on quarters for himself?

POLITICAL.

W. L. Perkins has been appointed postmaster at Albany, Clinton county. A woman's suffrage bill, it is stated, will be passed by the Kansas Legislature.

A bill to tax bachelors and old maids was introduced in the New York Legislature.

C. C. Spaulding has been nominated for representative by the democrats of Marion county.

Senator Fairbanks accepted unanimous re-election at the hands of the Indiana Legislature.

Congressman Boreing has recommended the appointment of J. M. Green as postmaster at Pineville.

The republicans of Adair and Cumberland have nominated Dr. L. C. Nell, of Columbia, for Representative.

The Jim Crow Negro is the natural result of a Jim Crow president, says the Louisville Times.

The Alabama House passed the bill increasing the governor's salary from $3,000 to $5,000 to take effect from the beginning of the term of the present incumbent.

Dr. William C. Black, who has been nominated for representative by the republicans in the Knox-Whitley district, will be a candidate for the republican caucus nomination for speaker.

James K. Richards, Solicitor General of the Department of Justice, is mentioned as a possible successor to Judge Day. Judge George Du Ruelle, of Louisville, is in Washington in the interest of his candidacy for the place.

The South Carolina Legislature has elected Congressman A. C. Latimer United States Senator to succeed J. W. McLaurin. The Wisconsin Legislature re-elected Senator John C. Spooner. Senator E. W. Pettus was re-elected in Alabama.

For the first time in at least four years a democrat presided over the deliberations of the House for a time Tuesday. Speaker Henderson had occasion to vacate the chair and requested Representative Underwood, of Alabama, to take his place.

The republican Senators in Colorado have practically conceded the regularity of the election of United States Senator Henry M. Teller by the abandonment of their separate organization. Gov. Peabody says he knows of no reason why he should not sign Teller's certificate of election, but he "will wait for a judicial opinion."

YOUTSEY'S CONFESSION.

Following are excerpts from the confession made by Henry E. Youtsey, who probably knows more about the assassination of Gov. Goebel than any of the fiendish crew of conspirators: "James B. Howard, of Clay county, fired the shot that killed William Goebel."

He named William S. Taylor, Chas. Finley, Caleb Powers, John L. Powers, William H. Culton and William J. Davidson as conspirators with him and said that others were active and had a guilty knowledge the crime was to be committed, these men, advised Goebel's death by shooting and aided and abetted in procuring his death.

On Jan. 27 after "Tallow Dick" Combs and Mason Hockersmith, the Negroes, notified Youtsey that they were not willing to do the killing, Taylor dictated a letter to Jim Howard. Youtsey wrote the letter, which contained instructions from Taylor for Howard to come to Frankfort, that his pardon for the murder of George Baker awaited him. The letter also instructed Howard to report to Youtsey in the auditor's office in Frankfort and to present his, Taylor's, letter to Youtsey. Then, the letter said, Youtsey would acquaint him, Howard, with the steps necessary to be taken in order to procure the pardon. Youtsey said he did not know whether Taylor's letter to Howard was sent by mail or messenger, but that he was inclined to believe that it was sent by a messenger. He said that Taylor either intended to send or did send the letter by Walter R. Day, the State treasurer, to John G. White at Winchester, and that the latter was to see that Howard got the letter. He said he was certain that Taylor did not confide to Day or to White why Howard was wanted except that he was to get a pardon. Taylor had told Youtsey that "By G-d Howard was the man. He had been in Frankfort after a pardon and could settle the contest by killing Goebel."

On Howard's arrival at Frankfort Youtsey told him that it had been decided that the only way to win the contest for the governorship was to kill Goebel, and that if he would do the killing Taylor would not only pardon him for the murder of Baker, but also for the murder of Goebel and would give him $1,000 besides. Howard asked how and when it could be done, and Youtsey told him of his plan to do the killing. He said it was to pull down the window blind in the office of the secretary of State, raise the window and to shoot Goebel with a smokeless powder steel bullet as he approached the State house. Youtsey told Howard no one would ever know, that Taylor was governor and the head of the State Guard. Howard agreed and Youtsey then left him in the hallway while he made a report to Taylor.

"Tell Howard to go ahead," said Taylor. Youtsey said that he had got the key from Powers' office from W. J. Davidson before Howard arrived and, according to an agreement made at a meeting on the night before, the office was to be left unoccupied and locked. Powers and the others had kept their promise and the office was without an occupant. About 11:15 o'clock Youtsey unlocked the door and let Howard in.

He had previously adjusted all the window blinds and had placed three rifles in the room. Each was loaded with the steel bullets. One of the rifles Youtsey said he had borrowed from Grant Roberts, also a clerk in the Auditor's office. The other two he had got around the Executive building. Youtsey said that while the room was darkened, it was not difficult to see, and that Howard examined each rifle with great care. He weighed them in his hands and took aim with each one.

Suddenly Goebel, Jack Chinn and Eph Lillard were sighted on their way to the State House. Youtsey pointed out Goebel to Howard, and told him that he was the man to be killed. Howard drew two big pistols from his pockets and placed them on the window sill. Youtsey asked Howard what he was going to do with the pistols, and he said: "I will shoot these off after I shoot Goebel, so people will think there are three or four men in this room." Howard got on his knees, aimed the Marlin rifle out the window, took steady aim and fired. Goebel fell. Howard dropped the rifle and fired four shots from the pistols. Youtsey said that when Howard fired at Goebel he (Youtsey) was standing inside the room, but with his back turned to Howard, and with his hand on the knob of the door leading from Powers' office into the hallway near the entrance to the cellar, or basement.

Youtsey said that when the shot rang out he sprang from the room and ran down the stairway into the basement. He cried: "My G-d, what's the matter?" as he ran. He ran around the building into Taylor's office, and told him that Howard had done the work—Goebel had been killed. Taylor was greatly excited, but was glad that Howard had performed his service. Howard was then paid the money for his dastardly deed. Youtsey said that the money which Taylor had in his possession to pay Howard was raised by contribution. He said that the money was originally raised to aid the republicans in their contest before the Legislature, and that all but two or three of the claimants to the State offices had given to the fund.

MESSDAMES R. C. WARREN, Mary E. Welch, L. B. Cook, Mary Craig and Miss Nell Warren went over to Lancaster Wednesday to hear Bro. Barrees.
THE Coffee Social given by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McRoberts Tuesday is honor of Rev. and Mrs. S. M. Rankin, was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.
MISS CLYDE MCGINNIS, of Danville, was here yesterday. She was accompanied by Miss Polly Traylor, of this place, who is attending Caldwell College.

MR. CURD WILLIAMS and mother, of Casey, passed through to Williamsburg Tuesday to reside. The latter took the train here but the former drove through.
MISS LUCILLE COOPER returned yesterday from a protracted and delightful visit to relatives at Nashville and Louisville. While in the former city she was shown a great deal of attention, a number of parties and hopes being given in her honor.

REV. S. N. RANKIN and wife left Wednesday morning for Greensboro, N. C., to reside. Rev. Rankin had been pastor of the Presbyterian church nearly six years and during his and his excellent wife's stay here they made friends of all with whom they came in contact. Truly, it can be said, that it has been years since a more popular couple has left Stanford. During his pastorate here Rev. Rankin received call from many churches, some of the calls to large and wealthy charges, but he felt that this was the place for him and he heeded them not. His object in accepting the call to a church near Greensboro was that he might be with his parents in their last years.

MR. WM. DAUGHERTY continues very ill.
MR. W. S. CUMMINS, of Rockcastle, is here hunting a farm.
MISS MATTIE BEASLEY is learning dentistry in her brother's office. She will assist him in his work.—Lancaster Record.

THE Daughters of the Confederacy will meet with Mrs. J. S. Rice at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The election of officers will take place and a large attendance is desired.

HIS LOSS.—Mr. I. N. Vaughn, who has made several visits here to relatives, one of whom is the editor of this paper, had the misfortune to lose his tobacco factory at Richmond, Va., by fire. The loss is about $100,000, which is fairly well covered by insurance.

PEACOCK.—Mr. Samuel Peacock, of Coal Creek, Tenn., who was burned in a gasoline explosion some days ago, died of his injuries Tuesday. Only 10 days ago he was married to Miss Louella Bright, of this county, the marriage occurring at the home of her brother in Danville. Mr. Peacock was well known in this section. He was postmaster at Lancaster under President Cleveland and was a popular gentleman and good citizen.

HERE'S A JOH—Snake charmers without a job can apply to Uncle Sam, who has a position open to persons qualified to "collect, classify and preserve" snakes and other reptiles. The civil service examinations for applicants will be held March 10, and the eligibles resulting will be certified for appointment to the position of aid in herpetology, division of reptiles, at the National Museum at Washington, D. C. The salary will be $50 a month. What a snap this is. $50 per month to do nothing but play with snakes. Just think of it.

BYWATERS.—Miss Maggie Bywaters, sister of Mrs. R. E. Gaines, died at their home at Duncan, I. T., and the remains were brought here and interred in Buffalo cemetery yesterday afternoon after services at the grave by Rev. A. S. Moffett, of Lebanon. She was about 55 years old and moved to Oklahoma from the Walnut Flat section some three years ago with Mr. and Mrs. Gaines. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and a devout Christian. Miss Bywaters came to Lincoln from Virginia 10 or 12 years ago.

GRIFFITHS.—George R. Griffiths died at McKinney Wednesday morning of consumption, aged about 45. The remains were taken to Lebanon yesterday and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon they were laid to rest; the Masons having charge of the body. A wife survives Mr. Griffiths and to her loss she has the sympathy of all who know her. Deceased was a clever, kind-hearted man and if he had an enemy we never heard of it. He was connected with a big lumber concern of Cincinnati and he made McKinney his headquarters to receive lumber from the mountain counties. Many will miss "Griff," as he was familiarly called, and many a heart was made sad by the announcement of his death.

Let Frank Adkins fix your umbrella. REDUCED prices on lap robes. J. C. McClary.

CRUSHED Oyster Shells for chickens at Craig & Hocker's.

BUCKBOARD.—Good second-hand buckboard for sale. Apply at this office.

EMMETT MCCORMACK has bought an interest in R. S. Tucker's store at Hustonville. They will make a strong team.

LIVERY business and stable in good town, for sale. Making money but want to quit the business. Address this office.

THE adjuster for the Springfield Insurance Co. represented here by W. A. Tribble, settled in full yesterday for G. L. Carpenter's loss on his barn.

TO CONTRACTORS.—Read the advertisement which appears on our fourth page and see if you can't make a few spare dollars by taking a pike contract or two.

THE democratic county committee of Lincoln county is called to meet at my office on Saturday, Jan. 31, 1903, for the purpose of transacting important business. W. S. Burch, chairman.

MRS. R. S. ECHANK and Miss Sallie Givens have been elected teachers in the Graded School. Two more rooms are being fitted up and will be ready by Monday. The enrollment now shows about 225 names.

A PATRON of this office hands us the following and asks its publication: "McKinney now boasts of a splendid postmaster in Miss Allen Gooch. She is going to make one of the best p. m. s. we ever had. She is good looking and is accommodating to the patrons. Young men mustn't mention matrimony as we don't want to give her up. It would be hard to fill her place."

BIG SHOW.—Alcorn's Opera House Feb. 4th and 5th, Burton's famous troupe of comedians, song and dance artists, monologues artists, comedy specialists, balladists, buck and wing dancers, piano soloists and Prof. Wilson's celebrated orchestra, which alone is worth the price of admission. This troupe comes very highly recommended both by press and public. They guarantee a 25 hour performance of high-class fun. Don't fail to see the latest thing in cake walking by the whole troupe of 20 people. "The ragtime parade" first time in this section of the country. First night for white people only, second night for colored. Reserved seats at Adams Drug Store. 2t.

DANVILLE.—Gentry, Farris & Menefee, proprietors of the Model Grocery in Danville, have purchased the grocery business of Humphrey & Co. at Richmond and will conduct a retail grocery store at that place. J. L. Bruce qualified as administrator of the large estate of the late Samuel Harding. The Law Department of Central University now contains 20 students. This is the largest attendance in many years. M. F. Rout, of Garrard, is using a razor for tonorial purposes that belonged to his grandfather, is more than 100 years old and is splendidly preserved. He also has a pair of spectacles of the same age that are encased in very heavy silver frames, and Mr. Rout is guarding them carefully, as he is almost old enough for them to be of service to him.—Advocate.

BOLD ROBBERY.—About 10:30 o'clock Wednesday night the glass in one of H. J. McRoberts' show windows was broken and two pairs of boots, a pair of patent leather shoes and two undershirts were taken. Marshal Jones was informed of the theft and he at once set search for the guilty party. The officer met Blackburn Huffman, who told him he had met Cash Humphrey, a Lancaster boy, on the Lancaster pike with a bundle under his arm. This was a clue and yesterday morning Humphrey was arrested and placed in jail. Later he confessed to breaking the window and told that the goods could be found in the cabin of Tom Manuel, colored, who lives just beyond Barrow's pond. She stole goods were found and returned to the owner. Humphrey says a young fellow wearing a cap was with him in the steal, but that he, Humphrey, was too drunk to recollect either his name or his whereabouts. Humphrey, who is a son of a well-known harness maker, came here on the noon train Wednesday and he gave at once to tank up.

MATRIMONIAL.

Asel Hoos, of Mercer, and Miss Lena Robison, of Perryville, eloped to Jellico and were married.
Rev. Ed Hubbard will preach at Mt. Moriah next Sunday morning and at Bee Lick the following Sunday morning.
George Holzelaw and Miss Nanele Watson, a very handsome and excellent young lady, were married at McKinney on the 25th.

ROOM for rent. Furnished or unfurnished. Mrs. Acule Newland. 2t
